HALLOWEEN

- Dedicated to remembering the dead, including saints (ie. Hallows), and martyrs
- Originated from western European harvest festivals, and festivals of the dead
- Celebrated annually on October 31
- Trick-or-treating, costume parties, decorating, pumpkin carving, bonfires, visiting haunted attractions, playing pranks, and telling scary stories

TRICK-OR-TREATING (US)

- Children in costumes go from house to house and say “Trick or Treat” as they ask for treats
- Prepare and buy some candy home
- Decorate the home entrance to welcome the children to the door or leave the treats in bowls outside
- Happens usually on October 31
